Apprentice Commitment

I understand that this is an application to participate in TEENS THAT MEAN BUSINESS, Emmanuel Community Economic Development Corporation's youth entrepreneurship program. The program runs from Tuesday, July 6th through Friday, August 13th. Should I be accepted as an apprentice, I agree to the conditions and specifications outlined below.

Initial Boxes

Stipend	I acknowledge that this is a six week program. Beginning July 6th, I will receive a weekly stipend based upon the New York State Department of Labor's minimum wage (24 hr. minimum – 28 hr. maximum per week). Please note: Apprentices are only paid for hours they work. They are not compensated for workshop attendance.
Stipend conditions	I acknowledge that my stipend may be withdrawn if I fail to attend weekly training sessions, work assignments or fail to comply with the dress code and designated rules of conduct.
Attendance and Punctuality	I acknowledge that I must report to all of my work assignments and training sessions on time.
Attire	I promise to report to my daily assignments & trainings dressed appropriately and professionally.
Codes of Conduct	I promise to adhere to TTMB's ground rules and distinguished code of conduct as outlined in the orientation manual.
Commitment	I'm aware that this is an apprenticeship experience and commit to complete the entire assignment and be available for all work* and training sessions during the course of the program. Due to the intensity of this apprenticeship, I understand that I will be unable to take a job, enroll in summer school/classes, or participate in other internships, camps or programs for the duration of the TTMB program.  *Some assignments may include Saturday work schedules.
Essay	Attach a personal statement (250-350 words, double-spaced & typed) indicating why you are interested in participating in the TTMB program. Your statement should be thoughtful and demonstrate your ability to organize and express yourself clearly.
